AC International Child Support is a well established, non-profit and independent organization, who work for children in especially difficult circumstances. We are among the largest adoption organizations in the world and we play a notable role and carry a responsibility when it comes to development projects, sponsorships and other kinds of humanitarian work. We are constantly developing our work and adjusting to the world around us and to the demands of the future.

We work to ensure that every child is given a chance to grow up in a loving and caring family. This is an ambitious goal, but we find that it is - even on a small scale - grandly worth fighting for.
